

Maxine's

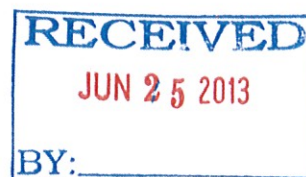

Providing unique objects for home and garden, Maxine's will be the perfect place to purchase a great gift or home accent for under $25. Featuring perfectly reproduced, new, "old world" small furniture pieces, bird cages, art, sculpture for home and garden, home fragrances, candles, soaps, lotions, new linens for bed and table and an assortment of cards and writing paper.

Scattered among the "new" merchandise shoppers will be able to find unique antique, vintage and repurposed pieces, including small furniture, art, silver flatware and serving trays, china, lamps and "found" garden and household items.

Maxine's will feature an understated "old world" look. With high ceilings, white walls and lots of natural light, when guests enter Maxine's they will have the feeling that they are walking into an old world atrium, filled with light fragrances, beautiful objects a few potted plants and soft music.

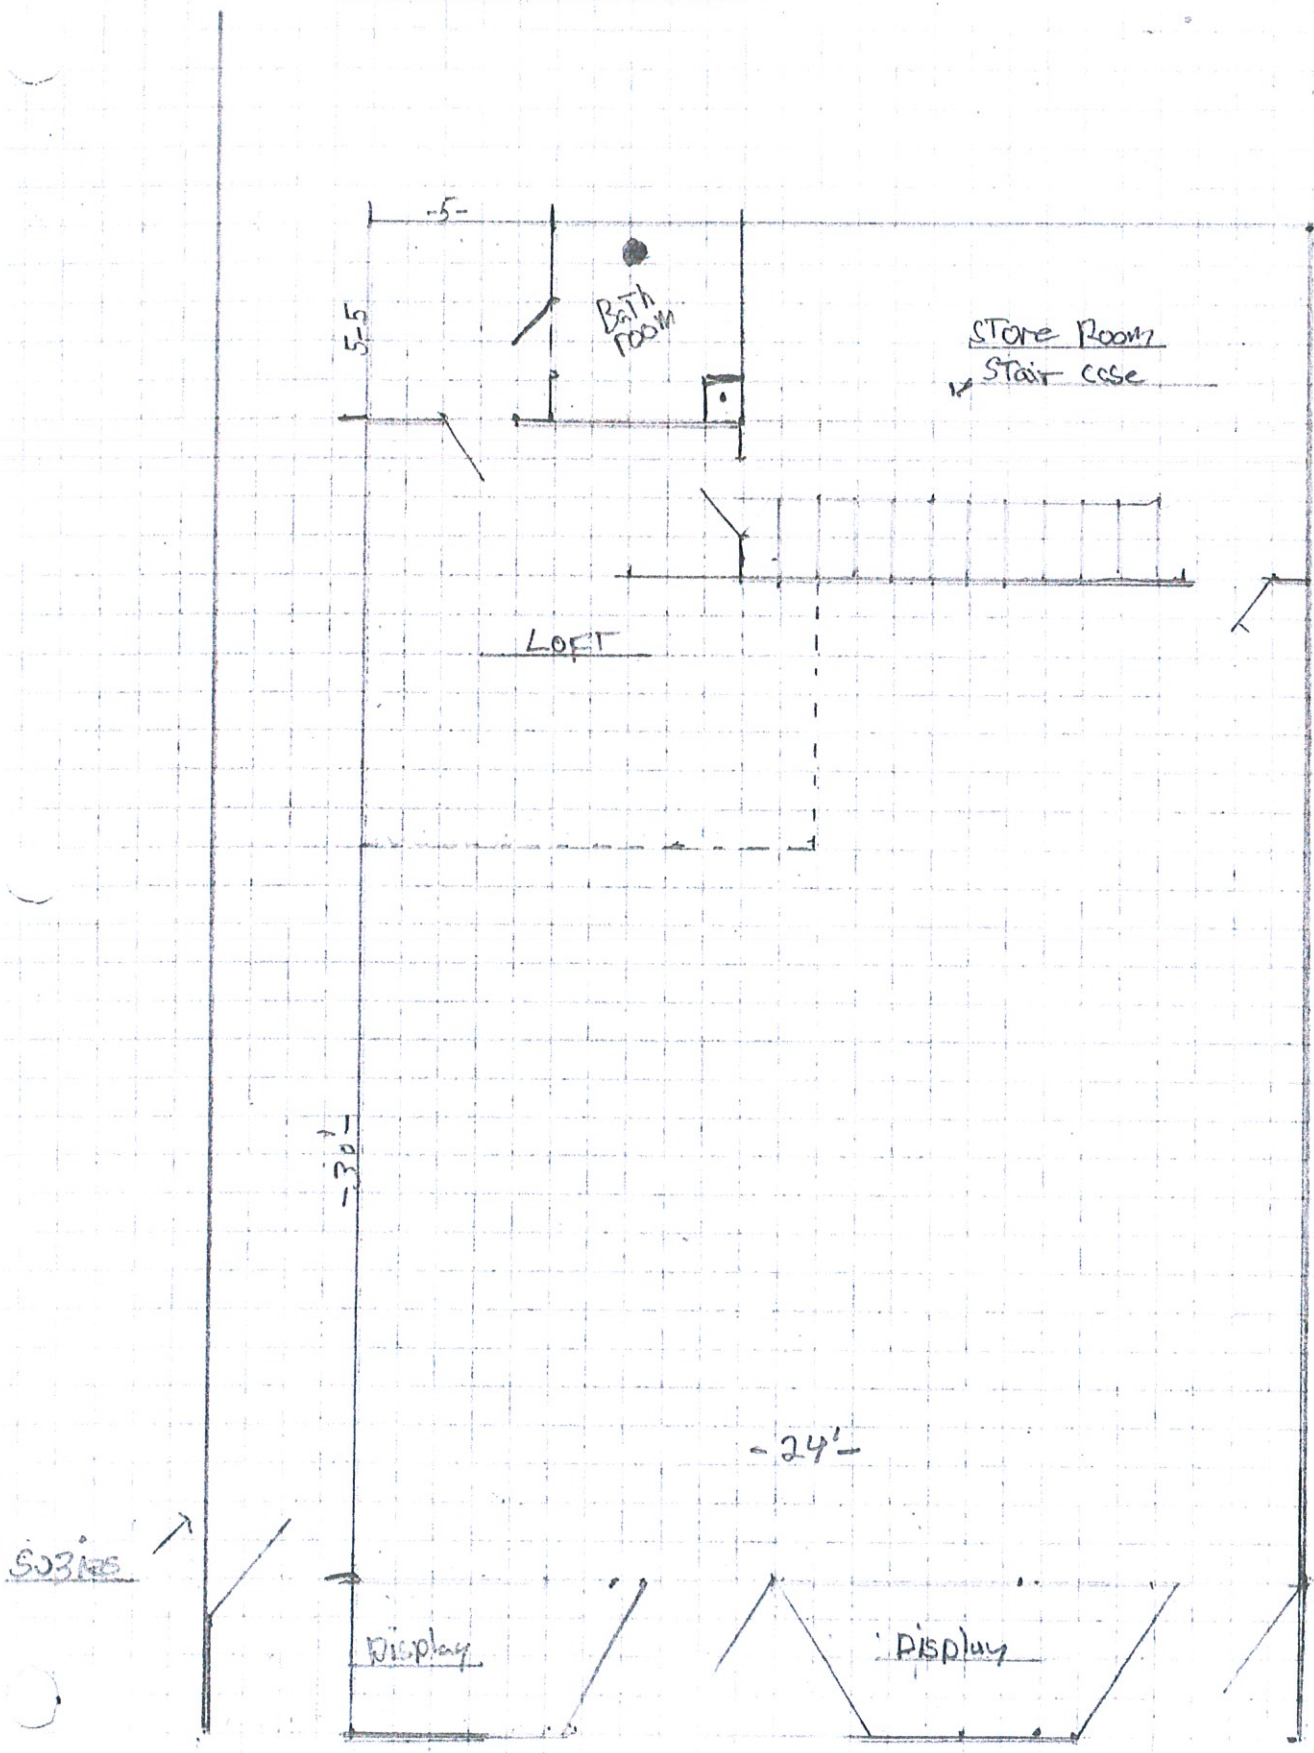

Maxine's will post slightly different hours for different seasons. The projected hours for September-December are; Monday-Friday, 10:00 am-6:00 pm or 6:30 pm (depending on the foot traffic and the restaurant crowd in the evenings) Saturday and Sunday 11:00 am-5:00 pm .

Owners Ted von Pohle and Kellie Lind (both Upper Valley residents for over 20 years) are committed to providing a unique shopping experience for both locals and tourists. One that will not only offer a place to purchase quality well-priced merchandise, but also an "experience" that will give shoppers ideas for design for their own homes.

M 1095

1865-17 Lincoln Ave

Lincoln Ave